Dear Mr. Anil Jauhri - CEO NABCB

Thank you for confirming that QCI/NABCB has no issues with ACCAB in market and serving interested parties.

This conclusively settles our open discussion on the subject.

Dear Ms. Manasi,

Yes, the action we take would be in public domain at the right time.

Now that I know you are accredited by ACCAB, let me assure you we have no issues with ACCAB being in market and serving interested clients. As we have no issues with any foreign AB operating here. In fact we routinely help them do assessments here. best wishes

Dear Mr. Jauhri,

Thank you for your email.

What action QCI/NABCB takes in this regard would be in the public domain sooner or later, which is more important from the perspective of conformity assessment activities in India rather than what realities you create in your mind regarding Standards Certification Council..

Dear Ms. Manasi,

You certainly do not expect me to disclose my strategy publicly.

Incidentally I detect a kind of sympathy for ACCAB's actions in your mails – I hope there is no connection.

I do remember SCC was once an applicant with NABCB – did we give you any reason to be aggrieved – not that I remember .

Best wishes

Dear Mr. Anil Jauhri,

Thank you for your email and noted that you have lamented in the said email as ACCAB is spreading "misinformation".

In that case, as a conformity assessment activity stakeholder, I would like to know whether QCI/NABCB could take any suitable action against ACCAB for spreading this "misinformation".

Ms. Parab

One does not need either legal knowledge or that of accreditation to read the judgments of Competition Commission and the Tribunal - both have dismissed the complaint of ACCAB.

This is pure misinformation.

Bravo Mr. Anil Jauhari !

Your knowledge of legal matters is as good as your understanding of accreditation and conformity assessment activities.

We sincerely hope that you would continue to illuminate us with your brilliance.

Wishing you good luck.

PI read the complete order rather than selective synopsis – simply stated, the tribunal dismissed the appeal of ACCAB and upheld the earlier decision of CCI dismissing its complaint.

ACCREDITATION COMMISSION FOR CONFORMITY ASSESSMENT BODIES

Independent & International Accreditation Services for:
Certification & Inspection Bodies ♦ Testing & Calibration Laboratories ♦ Medical Laboratories

Dear All,

We hope this email finds you well!

Some of you were already aware that ACCAB had filed an appeal with the Competition Appellate Tribunal (COMPAT) New Delhi- India against the entry barrier faced by ACCAB.

We are pleased to inform you that the COMPAT has vindicated ACCAB stand vide their order dated 17th January 2014.

We are pleased to attach herewith Synopsis of the order for your perusal and record.

You may view the complete order at:

http://compat.nic.in/upload/PDFs/janordersApp2014/17_01_14.pdf

OR at:

<http://www.accab.org/images/publication/COMPAT%20Judgement%20dated%2017.1.2014.pdf>

Please feel free to contact our legal advisor at info@accab.org if you require any further information or clarifications in this matter.

The aforementioned COMPAT judgment is the most important landmark in the Accreditation Services field as all of us already know the impact of demolishing monopoly in any sector.

Thanks & Kind Regards
